

LIEUTENANT COMMANDER SARA M. TETREAULT
JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL'S CORPS, U.S. NAVY

Lieutenant Commander Sara Tetreault received her B.A. from Hendrix College, in 1995, and her J.D., Cum Laude, from Stetson University College of Law, in 1998.

Lieutenant Commander Tetreault received her commission through the Student Program in 1999. Her initial assignment was at the Naval Legal Service Office Southwest (NLSO-SW), Branch Office Port Hueneme, California. While at NLSO-SW she served as Defense Counsel and Legal Assistance Attorney. In June 2001, Lieutenant Commander Tetreault transferred to the Office of the Judge Advocate General, Legal Assistance Division where she served as the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program Manager and the Field Support Manager. In June 2003, she reported to Naval Station Mayport as the Station Judge Advocate.

Lieutenant Commander Tetreault separated from active duty service in February 2007. In March 2007, she accepted a position as a civilian attorney with the Department of the Army at the Installation Legal Office Administrative Law Division for Fort Meade, Maryland. While in this position, Lieutenant Commander Tetreault practiced labor and employment law and Government ethics. In November 2008, Lieutenant Commander Tetreault accepted a position with the Navy's Office of General Counsel at Naval Air Systems Command in Patuxent River, Maryland.

Lieutenant Commander Tetreault affiliated with the Selected Reserves in March 2008. She is a member of the Naval Reserve Naval Personnel Command Legal unit which supports the Chief of Naval Personnel and Commander, Naval Personnel Command. In October 2009, Lieutenant Commander Tetreault began a one year Active Duty Special Work assignment supporting Naval Civil Law Support Activity, Office of the Judge Advocate General-Administrative Law Division (Code 13).